CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE.
AT THE OFFICES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION
WHITEHALL,
LONDON, S.W. 1.

18th June, 1931.

Dear Madam,

Text of Reference

The Consultative Committee of the Board of Education are at present considering a Reference from the Board regarding the training and education of young children up to the age of 7+.

The Consultative Committee would much like to learn the views of the Parents' National Educational Union on any aspects of this important problem in which the Union may be interested in the light of their own experience. I was accordingly requested to write and inquire whether your Union could see their way to send me for the use of the Consultative Committee a memorandum setting out their views. In case your Union can see their way to accept the Consultative Committee's invitation to send such a memorandum, I should be grateful if you could, if possible, let me have it by November 30th, 1931.

I am, dear Madam,

Yours faithfully,

Robert F. Young

Secretary to the Consultative Committee.
